camp description

If you're seeking a traditional summer camp experience for your child, Nothing But Fun is the place to be! This camp is ideal for families with children in multiple grade levels. With air hockey, legos, dramatic play, art, games and a library, there is something for everyone. Exciting weekly themes give a chance for campers to explore their world and discover their creative side through a variety of teacher planned activities. They will also enjoy group challenge games, build sandcastles at Santa Cruz Beach Boardwalk and check out the latest movie at the local Cineplex. This is the perfect program for your active child and for the the child that just likes to hang out with friends.
